

The Glove-Cities Colonials Win Again to Open 2010 Season 2-0

After beating The NFA's Watertown Revolution 25-18 on Saturday, June 26th, the Colonials traveled to Binghamton, NY to play the EFL's Broome County Dragons. After a scoreless first quarter the Colonials' balanced attack went to work scoring on their next five possessions including touch downs from Kastner to Jessie Bennett (2), Pleasant Row (2), a rushing touchdown from David Jenkins and Alex Health.

Justin Kastner ended the game 15-22 with 277 yards and the running attack amounted 151 yards on 26 carries, capped off with a 50-yard touch down scamper from Alex Health for the Colonials' final score.

The defense had interceptions from Joe Halse and Andre Bowes, while Jim Meher had a fumble recovery.

The Colonials' took a 21-8 lead into half-time and never looked back to end the game 41-16. Both sides of the ball contributed when needed.

The Colonials' next game is Saturday, July 10th at Knox Field in Johnstown, and kick-off is slated for 7:30pm against rival Albany Metro Mallers.
